Lip colouring started to gain some popularity in 16th-century England. During the time of Queen Elizabeth I bright red lips and a stark white face became fashionable. At that time, lipstick was made from a blend of beeswax and red stains from plants. Only upper class women and male actors wore makeup.

Hi, Thanks so much for this. Itâ€™s great! Just one thing, the print order is not the same as shown in your pictures- instead of the ring on the left and the honeymoon car on the right, the PDF has the pages in order as they would be in the book, so the page with the ring on the left has the cake on the right, which does not work for printing.
