Thank you for the comment, Frank. There are many "soft skills" we (i.e., society, educators, etc.) expect people to just pick up at some point, from somewhere: collaboration, skim reading, reading for enjoyment versus reading for understanding, editing versus reading, editing for mechanics versus editing for conceptual clarity.

There's certainly something to this. Just not at all the something that's being reported. Even if Trump does not get the nomination, he's in a very different position from Sanders, in that he's emerged as the clear front-runner of the Republican field. Being a Trump supporter right now must feel like being in the middle of a potentially successful revolution.
