In television programming, the situation comedy or sitcom may be recorded using either a multiple-camera setup or a single-camera setup. Single-camera sitcoms are often notable for their enhanced visual style, use of real-world filming locations and in recent years, for not having a laugh track (most single-camera sitcoms from the 1960s contained a laugh track).

Being a guy who writes science fiction, people expect me to be well-informed about the current state of the field as if I'm a book reviewer who reads everything published in my own approximate area. (This is a little like expecting a bus driver to have an informed opinion on every other form of ...
